DID NOT VOTE AGAINST BRYAN.
Leesburg, Va., Feb. 20, 1900.

To the Editor of the Alexandria Gazette:

I learn through the Leesburg Mirror that your Washington correspondent says I voted for McKinley last election, as all bank presidents did. Such ultra expressions may be very satisfactory to the writer, but can it be productive of good to a paper professing to give reliable information? I confess I seriously object to be so represented. I never voted a republican ticket in my life nor never shall until the Southern soldier is recognized—not in any insignificant but in the broadest sense the equal with the soldier of the North. Men on both sides thought conscientiously, I believe. What separates us now? Nothing but the republican party's purpose to hold the soldier's vote to their party. And they think they must down the Southern soldiers to do it. No, sir; I never voted it. Let this be as widespread as the other. Most respectfully.

An Editor's Life Saved by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

During the early part of October, 1866, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something that I could not. I became alarmed, and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—B. S. EDWARDS, Publisher of The Review, W. Wyant, Ill. For sale by all druggists.
